

Dream of: 03 May 2022 “Discussing War”

the maker of man's dreams is also the maker of man's history

I am talking with my Facebook friend Ralf (an occasional writer of dreams on Facebook) about one of his dark dreams of a war described in the Bible, one in which Assyrians or Babylonians were probably involved.

Commentary of 03 May 2022

The Old Testament claims that God uses war as punishment for sin. Surely, there is at least a grain of truth in this proposition.
